PASTORAL PONDERINGS

Mass: The Perfect Thanksgiving

Men have not only prayed in thanksgiving, but have offered in thanksgiving: something that was a sign of themselves, to show they were thankful for life, were sorry for their sins against the Giver of life, would give their lives in return, if they might, to the One they owe so much. They made offerings in thanks for the things that sustain life, for the preservation of life. He brought them through water, led them by fire, fed them with manna, and when they sinned against Him, He chastised them and accepted their sacrifices of expiation. He made it part of their Law, their Covenant, that they were to offer sacrifice: of reparation, of petition, of praise, of thanksgiving. Then Christ came.

When it was time for the thing to happen for which He came, He said to the Apostles, "This is my body, which is being given for you; do this, in remembrance of me."

And He said: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which shall be shed for you."

This was the new covenant, the new Pasch. . . "in my blood," He said. From that moment on, they were to make sacrifice "in my blood."

The offering is a symbol of the offerer. Blood is the essence of life. This is our gift to offer: His Body and Blood, every day.

Think of all the things the Redemption accomplished, and do not forget this last: to put into our hands the perfect Gift, the pure Victim — "holy and spotless, the holy bread of everlasting life and the chalice of everlasting salvation." With the sacrifice of Holy Mass, Catholics make their thanksgiving.

What the Catechism of the Catholic Church Teaches...

How does the Lord Jesus now reign?

As the Lord of the cosmos and of history, the Head of his Church, the glorified Christ mysteriously remains on earth where his kingdom is already present in seed and in its beginning in the Church. One day he will return in glory but we do not know the time. Because of this we live in watchful anticipation, praying "Come, Lord" (Revelation 22:20).

How will the coming of the Lord in glory happen?

After the cosmic upheaval of this passing world the glorious coming of Christ will take place. Then will come the definitive triumph of God in the parousia and the Last Judgement. Thus the Kingdom of God will be realized.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Jesus answered, My kingdom does not belong to this world." (John 18:36).

How often do we put all our time and energy into building a kingdom here on earth, forgetting that life here is short? The real kingdom is the next life. Yet, how much time and energy do we invest in working for that eternal kingdom?
